CNPLaw is pleased to announce the appointment of Kenn Lim as Director - Special Projects.

Kenn previously served as a Partner of the firm and has been instrumental in advising clients on complex legal matters while cultivating strong and enduring client relationships. Alongside a strong legal practice, Kenn also played a key role in the firm's overall talent development and business development initiatives.

In his new role as Director - Special Projects, Kenn will focus on firmwide strategic initiatives, including practice innovation and cross-practice collaborations. This role reflects the firm's continued efforts on enhancing service delivery and adapting to the evolving legal landscape.

"Kenn has been a trusted leader within the firm and a valued advisor to our clients," said Lisa Theng, Managing Partner of CNPLaw. "His experience and strategic perspective will be valuable in supporting the firm's continued growth and success."
