

BREXIT: WHAT DID WE GET FOR CHRISTMAS?

Posted on January 21, 2021

Category: CNPupdates

General disclaimer

This article is provided to you for general information and should not be relied upon as legal advice. The editor and the contributing authors do not guarantee the accuracy of the contents and expressly disclaim any and all liability to any person in respect of the consequences of anything done or permitted to be done or omitted to be done wholly or partly in reliance upon the whole or any part of the contents.

Key contacts: Wong

Pei-Ling and Jolyn Wah.

With the conclusion of negotiations, and 1 January 2021 having come and gone, Brexit is finally here to stay!

In this briefing on the Brexit trade deal, Mr Charles Pigott of Mills & Reeve LLP (CNPLaw's fellow SCG member firm in the UK) has expertly summarised the EU-UK Trade and Cooperation Agreement, which spans over 1,200 pages, into 2 pages.

For more insights on the implications of Brexit including data protection, intellectual property and supply chains, please access Mills & Reeve LLP's Brexit Hub.

General disclaimer

This article is provided to you for general information and should not be relied upon as legal advice. The editor and the contributing authors do not guarantee the accuracy of the contents and expressly disclaim any and all liability to any person in respect of the consequences of anything done or permitted to be done or omitted to be done wholly or partly in reliance upon the whole or any part of the contents.