The Investment Funds Team: Bill Jamieson, Amit Dhume, Abel Ho

CNPLaw LLP (CNP) is proud to announce that in the 2022 edition of Chambers Asia-Pacific, the firm has received a Band 4 ranking for its Investment Funds practice, with Partners Mr Bill Jamieson and Mr Amit Dhume from CNPLaw's Investment Funds team having been recognised as Notable Practitioners and ranked under Band 2 and Band 4 respectively.

As quoted from Chambers, the Investment Funds team at CNP is known for "a wide range of investment fund matters including fund formation, management, revisions and regulatory advice". The team "frequently acts for investment professionals in the formation of Cayman Islands-domiciled funds" and "handles the full gamut of equity, venture capital, real estate and hedge fund structures".

Regarding Mr Bill Jamieson, specifically, Chambers has shared the following review:

- "Bill Jamieson has a strong practice regularly advising on the formation of Singaporean and offshore-domiciled funds as well as providing related regulatory advice. "Bill understands how we work. He is very responsive, able to respond to urgent matters and is also very detailed in his work. He has great funds expertise," explains one interviewee."

Regarding Mr Amit Dhume, specifically, Chambers has shared the following review:

- "Amit Dhume has notable experience advising fund managers regarding the formation of open-ended funds. A source reports: "Amit is a breath of fresh air, he can cut to the chase and is practical and efficient in getting us to our solutions. He doesn't just recite law at us, he has good commercial sense."

ABOUT CHAMBERS ASIA-PACIFIC

The 2022 edition of Chambers Asia-Pacific is a guide published by Chambers and Partners that recommends leading lawyers and law firms across Asia and Pacific Rim. Quoted from Chambers: "law firms and individual lawyers are ranked in bands from 1 (highest) - 6 (lowest) and being ranked in any band is a significant achievement. The qualities on which rankings are assessed include technical legal ability, professional conduct, client service, commercial astuteness, diligence, commitment, and other qualities most valued by the client".
