

CNPLAW LLP ACTED AS COUNSEL ON SALE OF THE COLLECTIVE WORKS CO-WORKING BUSINESS TO THE WORK PROJECT KINGDOM

Posted on October 1, 2018

Category: Deals and cases

General disclaimer

This article is provided to you for general information and should not be relied upon as legal advice. The editor and the contributing authors do not guarantee the accuracy of the contents and expressly disclaim any and all liability to any person in respect of the consequences of anything done or permitted to be done or omitted to be done wholly or partly in reliance upon the whole or any part of the contents.

Date Published: 1 October 2018

The Lawyer Advising On The Transaction: Bill Jamieson.

CNPLaw LLP ("CNP"), formerly known as Colin Ng & Partners LLP, represented Mr Jonathan O'Byrne, founder of Collective Works, and his family holding company, Collective Assembly, on the sale of Collective Works' premium co-working business to The Work Project Kingdom, a joint venture between CapitaLand and The Work Project, for an undisclosed amount.

General disclaimer

This article is provided to you for general information and should not be relied upon as legal advice. The editor and the contributing authors do not guarantee the accuracy of the contents and expressly disclaim any and all liability to any person in respect of the consequences of anything done or permitted to be done or omitted to be done wholly or partly in reliance upon the whole or any part of the contents.