CNPLaw LLP ("CNP"), formerly known as Colin Ng & Partners LLP, was awarded the SmartLaw accreditation by the Law Society of Singapore on Monday 27 March 2017 at the launch of the SmartLaw scheme.

The SmartLaw award recognizes Singapore law practices who have adopted technology to improve productivity and increase business capabilities. To be recognised, the Singapore law practices must have adopted a practice management or accounting software, an online knowledge management database and have an online presence. The SmartLaw awards ceremony took place at the Legal Technology Roadshow held at the NTUC Business Centre, Singapore.

Commenting on the award, Lisa Theng Managing Partner said, "This award is testament to the firm's commitment in using technology to streamline our internal processes to deliver exceptional service to our clients."
