CNPLAW SPEAKS ON PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION LAWS

Posted on July 16, 2019

Category: Events

General disclaimer

This article is provided to you for general information and should not be relied upon as legal advice. The editor and the contributing authors do not guarantee the accuracy of the contents and expressly disclaim any and all liability to any person in respect of the consequences of anything done or permitted to be done or omitted to be done wholly or partly in reliance upon the whole or any part of the contents.

Updated: 16 July 2019

Event Speakers: Wong Pei Ling, Lorraine Liew and Marvin Chua

Corporate lawyers Wong Pei-Ling and Lorraine Liew, assisted by Marvin Chua, gave a talk to the management and staff of Dai-Dan Co., Ltd (Singapore Branch) on 10 July 2019. The talk covered the obligations of an organization in the collection, use, and disclosure of personal data, the role of management in managing and containing data breach, and the impact of the Advisory Guidelines on the Personal Data Protection Act for NRIC and Other National Identification Numbers moving forward. The talk was followed by a candid, thought-provoking Q&A session and was well received.

Should you wish to be notified about talks similar to this, please sign up for CNPupdate, the firm's newsletter, below. You may also follow CNPLaw via LinkedIn or Facebook.

Attendees of this event who wants to view a copy of the slides may email event@cnplaw.com to indicate your interest.

General disclaimer

This article is provided to you for general information and should not be relied upon as legal advice. The editor and the contributing authors do not guarantee the accuracy of the contents and expressly disclaim any and all liability to any person in respect of the consequences of anything done or permitted to be done or omitted to be done wholly or partly in reliance upon the whole or any part of the contents.