

CNPLAW SPEAKS ON THE USE OF SHAREHOLDERS' AGREEMENTS FOR BUSINESS SUCCESSION PLANNING

Posted on February 25, 2019

Category: Events

General disclaimer

This article is provided to you for general information and should not be relied upon as legal advice. The editor and the contributing authors do not guarantee the accuracy of the contents and expressly disclaim any and all liability to any person in respect of the consequences of anything done or permitted to be done or omitted to be done wholly or partly in reliance upon the whole or any part of the contents.

Published: 25 February 2019

Event Speaker: Hazel Ho-Tsastsina

CNPLaw, formerly known as Colin Ng & Partners LLP, gave a talk on the topic of business succession planning with a focus on shareholders' agreements on 21 February 2019 at a seminar hosted by Mr Lau Ming Kwang, an executive financial consultant from AIA Financial Advisers specialising in estate and succession planning. The talk highlighted the potential issues arising from failure to address business succession, the benefits of having a shareholders' agreement and the key considerations in preparing a shareholders' agreement. The seminar was followed by a Q&A session and was well attended by participants from various industries.

Do drop us a note at event@cnplaw.com if you wish to take part in any of our upcoming legal seminars.

General disclaimer

This article is provided to you for general information and should not be relied upon as legal advice. The editor and the contributing authors do not guarantee the accuracy of the contents and expressly disclaim any and all liability to any person in respect of the consequences of anything done or permitted to be done or omitted to be done wholly or partly in reliance upon the whole or any part of the contents.