CNPLaw LLP (CNP) is proud to announce that in the 2024 edition of Chambers Asia-Pacific, the firm has been ranked for its Capital Markets practice and Investment Funds practice, with Partner Mr Bill Jamieson from CNPLaw's Investment Funds team receiving a Band 3 ranking for Investment Funds: Domestic

Quotes from Chambers:

The knowledge base of the Investment Funds team is not just on the black letter law but also on practical finance practices. They usually respond within a few hours of receiving our emails and turnaround has been extremely fast."

"The Capital Markets team led by Min-Li has considerable depth and expertise. They are responsive and provide solutions and answers."

Regarding Mr Bill Jamieson, specifically, Chambers has shared the following review:

"Bill is a walking repository of legal knowledge and his attention to detail is par excellence. He was extremely insightful, and guided us on the set-up of the VCC without any glitches."

ABOUT CHAMBERS ASIA-PACIFIC

The 2024 edition of Chambers Asia-Pacific is a guide published by Chambers and Partners that recommends leading lawyers and law firms across Asia and Pacific Rim. Quoted from Chambers: "law firms and individual lawyers are ranked in bands from 1 (highest) – 6 (lowest) and being ranked in any band is a significant achievement. The qualities on which rankings are assessed include technical legal ability, professional conduct, client service, commercial astuteness, diligence, commitment, and other qualities most valued by the client".
