The team who advised on the matter: Pradeep Kumar Singh, Wong Pei-Ling, Lorraine Liew and Marvin Chua.

CNPLaw LLP provided employment law advice to a Japanese listed multinational corporation in the electrical, air-conditioning and intelligent building system facilities industry. The team was tasked with reviewing and harmonising the Singapore subsidiary's employee and personal data protection handbooks with the handbooks issued by the Japanese holding company; and updating their template employment documents to comply with changes to the Employment Act in April 2019. A workshop was also conducted for senior employees on the collection, use and transfer of personal data including employee data within the group.
