We are delighted to announce that our Capital Markets and Investment Funds practices and our lawyers Tan Min-Li and Bill Jamieson have been recognised in the Chambers Asia Pacific Guide 2026. This is the sixth time that we have been recognised in this guide. Chambers and Partners APAC Guide 2026 featured the following reviews from our clients:

“CNPLaw's lawyers have strong industry knowledge and are committed and dedicated to meeting the vigorous demands of projects.”

“Tan Min-Li boasts long-standing experience in handling complex corporate finance and capital markets mandates. She is well versed in a wide variety of issues including employee share schemes and disposal of shares matters, and she is regularly sought by clients to advise on matters related to the Singapore Exchange.”

“Bill Jamieson of CNPLaw has a strong practice regularly advising on the formation of Singaporean and offshore-domiciled funds as well as providing related regulatory advice.”

CNP would like to extend our warmest gratitude to all clients for their constant support throughout the years.
