CNPLaw LLP is pleased to announce our continued recognition in Benchmark Litigation Asia-Pacific 2025 rankings across multiple key practice areas:

- Commercial and Transactions
- Construction
- International Arbitration
- Insolvency
- Family and Matrimonial
- Private Clients

We're especially proud of the improved rankings by our Family and Matrimonial and Private Clients practices, both of which have achieved a Tier 2 ranking this year - a testament to the trust our clients place in us and the depth of experience within our team.

CNPLaw would also like to specially recognise our partners who have received individual rankings from Benchmark Litigation. Ms. See Tow Soo Ling joins ranks with Mr. Subramanian Pillai as they are both recognised as Litigation Stars in 2025. Mr. Subramanian Pillai continues to be recognised in the area of Construction and Ms. See Tow Soo Ling was recognised for Commercial and Transactions. Benchmark Litigation has also recognised Ms. Huimin Hu and Mr. Edwin Chia as Future Stars in the practice areas of Family and Matrimonial and Private Clients respectively.

Benchmark Litigation, established in 2008 to cover the litigation and disputes markets in the United States and Canada, has since expanded its scope to include Asia-Pacific, Europe, and Latin America. The Asia-Pacific edition of Benchmark Litigation utilises a rigorous evaluation process based on three fundamental criteria: case evidence, peer feedback, and client feedback.
