

CNP SERVES

Posted on August 3, 2026

Category: CNPupdates

General disclaimer

This article is provided to you for general information and should not be relied upon as legal advice. The editor and the contributing authors do not guarantee the accuracy of the contents and expressly disclaim any and all liability to any person in respect of the consequences of anything done or permitted to be done or omitted to be done wholly or partly in reliance upon the whole or any part of the contents.

Outside of serving our clients, we at CNPLaw believe it's our privilege and prerogative to serve the community.

Last December, amid heightened regional tensions, I traveled to Cambodia to support displaced families, the elderly, and the poor in refugee camps, partnering with YWAM Siem Reap and YWAM Poipet. Because many could not return to their homes, many were left without food, water or shelter. Our team distributed food, water, and tarps directly within the camps, stopping along the roadsides until our supplies were completely exhausted.

 The team that went

 Supplies shared in refugee camps

We also organised games and skits for the many children within refugee camps, bringing moments of joy and laughter to an otherwise uncertain time.

Children's activities in refugee camps

This past May, I returned to the region. While the situation has thankfully stabilised, many homes along the border were destroyed, leaving families without a place to stay. I hope to return in the near future to continue supporting these communities.

For us, it goes beyond corporate social responsibility – #CNPServes in every meaningful way we can.

General disclaimer

This article is provided to you for general information and should not be relied upon as legal advice. The editor and the contributing authors do not guarantee the accuracy of the contents and expressly disclaim any and all liability to any person in respect of the consequences of anything done or permitted to be done or omitted to be done wholly or partly in reliance upon the whole or any part of the contents.