

CNPLAW CONDUCTED A WEBINAR ON DEBT RECOVERY: IMPLICATIONS ARISING OUT OF THE NEW PRE-ACTION PROTOCOL, AND THE COVID-19 (TEMPORARY MEASURES) ACT 2020

Posted on June 1, 2020

Debt Recovery:
Implications arising out of the new pre-action protocol, and the Covid-19 (Temporary Measures) Act 2020

REGISTER HERE

12 June (Friday) | 4:00 PM to 5:00 PM | Hosted by See Tow Soo Ling and Edwin Chio, Partners at CNPLaw

Under the State Courts' pre-action protocol for business-to-business claims ("the Protocol"), a debtor generally has to be given 28 days to respond to a letter of demand. In this webinar, we will provide an overview of the objective of the Protocol, and the implications on your claims against businesses. References will also be made to the temporary relief provided under the Covid-19 (Temporary Measures) Act 2020 for businesses unable to perform certain contractual obligations as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic.

cnplaw
KNOWING + THINKING + SOLVING
Across Asia

Categories: Covid-19 Resource, Events

General disclaimer

This article is provided to you for general information and should not be relied upon as legal advice. The editor and the contributing authors do not guarantee the accuracy of the contents and expressly disclaim any and all liability to any person in respect of the consequences of anything done or permitted to be done or omitted to be done wholly or partly in reliance upon the whole or any part of the contents.

Updated: 12 June 2020

Presenters: Edwin Chia and See Tow Soo Ling.

Under the State Courts' pre-action protocol for business-to-business claims ("the Protocol"), a debtor generally has to be given 28 days to respond to a letter of demand. In this webinar conducted on 12 June 2020 and hosted by Mr Edwin Chia and Ms See Tow Soo Ling, CNPLaw provided an overview of the objective of the Protocol, and the implications on ones claims against businesses. References were also made to the temporary relief provided under the Covid-19 (Temporary Measures) Act 2020 for businesses unable to perform certain contractual obligations as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Should you wish to be notified about talks similar to this, please sign up for CNPupdate, the firm's newsletter, below. You may also follow CNPLaw via LinkedIn, Facebook or Twitter.

Attendees of this webinar who wants to view a copy of the slides may email event@cnplaw.com to indicate your interest.

General disclaimer

This article is provided to you for general information and should not be relied upon as legal advice. The editor and the contributing authors do not guarantee the accuracy of the contents and expressly disclaim any and all liability to any person in respect of the consequences of anything done or permitted to be done or omitted to be done wholly or partly in reliance upon the whole or any part of the contents.