CNPLAW LLP MANAGE THE TRADEMARK OF A POPULAR TRAVEL AGENCY AND REGISTERED THEIR TRADEMARKS IN VARIOUS COUNTRIES

Posted on April 13, 2017

Category: Deals and cases

General disclaimer

This article is provided to you for general information and should not be relied upon as legal advice. The editor and the contributing authors do not guarantee the accuracy of the contents and expressly disclaim any and all liability to any person in respect of the consequences of anything done or permitted to be done or omitted to be done wholly or partly in reliance upon the whole or any part of the contents.

Date Published: 13 April 2017

The Lawyer Acting On The Case: Soo Ling See Tow.

CNPLaw LLP ("CNP"), formerly known as Colin Ng & Partners LLP, took over the management of the trademark portfolio of a popular travel agency and assisted the clients in prosecuting applications to register their trademarks in various countries worldwide, some of which were applied for via subsequent designation of their existing international registration, which is governed by the Madrid Protocol. CNPLaw took measures to protect the client's brand including, but not limited to assisting the client in an opposition action against the applicant of a similar mark in Singapore.

General disclaimer

This article is provided to you for general information and should not be relied upon as legal advice. The editor and the contributing authors do not guarantee the accuracy of the contents and expressly disclaim any and all liability to any person in respect of the consequences of anything done or permitted to be done or omitted to be done wholly or partly in reliance upon the whole or any part of the contents.