The Lawyer Advising on The Transaction: Chan Wai Mun.

Mr Chan Wai Mun from CNPLaw LLP, formerly known as Colin Ng & Partners, was appointed as general counsel to advise and act for the land concession owner and main developer of a Specific Economic Zone in Laos. This is a 54-hectare large scale land and property development project for mixed commercial and residential uses including an integrated resort with casino, hotels, entertainment complex, retail malls, office and commercial towers, condominiums and shophouses; all of which cater to a wide international profile of investors, co-developers and financiers. We will be acting in the development, construction, and financing of the whole project including structuring all related joint ventures and working collaborations with overseas investors and partners.
