Our Practice

Dispute Resolution is one of the core practice groups of CNPLaw LLP.

Members of our Dispute Resolution Practice Group have extensive experience in all aspects of civil and criminal litigation and alternative dispute resolution (including arbitration and mediation), from complex cross border disputes to simple claims for monies owed.

Members of our Dispute Resolution Practice Group regularly appear at every level of the Court hierarchy and have been involved in numerous cases reported in the Singapore Law Reports.

Our clients are diverse, ranging from multinational corporations, foreign and local listed companies, foreign and local financial institutions as well as prominent businessmen, professionals and individuals.

The Dispute Resolution Practice Group has been recommended in numerous independent legal publications for its ability to handle a range of complex contentious work with particular focus on banking, insolvency, intellectual property disputes and especially arbitration.
